

Financial 26 Things to Teach your Parents

Do you want to be a millionaire? Do you know how? Do you know how an ATM card gives you money from the machine? Have you ever wondered why some people have credit cards, and some don't? Do you think credit cards give you free money? Did you know that credit cards can help you, or they can drag you down into the mud?

Don't be fooled by the title of this book!

If your parents or your teachers haven't talked to you about any of these things yet, then I've reached you at the right moment in your life. The moment before you may make a serious financial mistake that can cost you lots of money, sadness and distress in your future. It doesn't have to be that way though. You must learn about money, bills, credit and savings so that you can put it all together to help to create the life that you want for yourself. So this book is for you, regardless of your age. May it help you to learn the many things about money and wealth (not just that you need it to buy what you want) that your parents may not have learned (or taught you).

You will learn at least one thing (if not more) to help you become more wealthy, simply by reading this book.
